This application having been heard on 04.01.2012, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

ORDER

By Hon'ble Mr. Justice P.R. Raman, Judicial Member-

The applicant was appointed as Programme Executive through Union Public Service Commission on and with effect from 19.7.1988 in the scale of Rs. 2000-3500/-. While so the applicant was kept under suspension from 13.3.1992 till 11.4.2004 the date on which she was dismissed from service on charges of corruption. Ultimately the case went in acquittal and the applicant was reinstated in service. Annexure A1 the order by which the applicant was reinstated in service. Following Annexure A1 order the respondents passed Annexure A2 also granting the pay and allowances due for the period under which the applicant was kept out of service less what is paid by way of subsistence allowance. Thus the entire disciplinary action became nonest in law. According to the applicant in such circumstances applicant is entitled for the ACP benefits on completion of 12 years with effect from 19.7.1988 i.e. on 19.7.2000 and also for MACP on completion of 20 years which fell due on 1.9.2008. Since ACP and MACP benefits were not paid applicant has approached this Court by filing the present OA.

2. This case was posted on number of occasions so as to enable the respondents to file counter if they are objecting to the reliefs sought for. No counter is filed. Therefore, the facts as stated in the OA is not refuted and stands as proved. Things as they stand, it can be clearly stated that on the entire disciplinary action having been set aside and the applicant reinstated in service the whole proceedings initiated in the meantime becomes nonest in law. Therefore, the service has to be treated as continuous and the applicant will be deemed to be in service through out the period when he was kept out of service because of the disciplinary action. If so, the entire period is liable to be counted for reckoning the 12 and 20 years of service completing for ACP and MACP benefits respectively. We declare the same. Accordingly, the respondents are directed to calculate the amount due to the applicant and pay the same as expeditiously as possible at any rate within a period of three months.

3. Original Application is allowed as above. No order as to costs.
