CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicants who are Senior Gangmen/Gangman stake a claim for absorption as Tindals. They say that Mopila Khalasis who are junior to them have been absorbed as Tindals.

2. In answer, respondents would say that Tindals are appointed from among Mopila Khalasis who are casual labourers awaiting regularisation, that applicants are no longer Mopila Khalasis but regular employees and that the comparison is misleading. It is stated in the reply statement that the applicants have been working as regular Gangmen for more than nine years. After getting regularisation they are trying to steal a march over Mopila Khalasis (Casual Labourers) who are yet to get regularisation. The decasualised vacancies of Tindals are intended to provide for Mopila Khalasis who have been functioning as casual labourers for long without regularisation. Those like applicants who have already obtained regularisation cannot steal a march over others in an attempt to advance their personal prospects.

3. We find no legally enforceable rights in applicants to get the reliefs prayed for. We dismiss the application but without costs.

Dated 3rd November, 1994.
