O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicant, a retrenched employee of respondents challenges the appointment of 4th respondent and claims preference over him. 4th respondent, like applicant was also a retrenched employee and there are others in that category. We are told that vacancies had arisen after the appointment of 4th respondent and that one vacancy remains unfilled now. Applicant submits that she would be satisfied if she is considered against that vacancy along with other eligible candidates. Subject to eligibility, the claim of applicant will also be considered for that vacancy as sympathetically as possible, at once, consistent with rules. With these directions we dispose of the application. No costs.
