ORDER

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

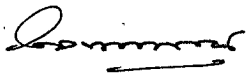

The facts of these cases are identical, and so are the reliefs sought. The services of applicants have been terminated on the ground that they had practised deception to obtain employment. It is alleged that they had mentioned wrong dates of birth and that this was found out in a vigilance enquiry. This enquiry is the basis for termination.

2. It has been settled for a long time in this country, that an order to the detriment of an official (howsoever attractive the reasons therefor may appear) cannot be made without affording him/her an opportunity to show cause against the proposed order. Affected persons must know the reasons upon which action is proposed. Authority is legion for this proposition, and it is found in a long catena of decisions from Dr. (Miss) Binapani Dei's case (AIR 1967 SC 1269). Admittedly the impugned orders were passed without disclosing the reasons therefor to applicants and without affording them an opportunity to show cause against the same. For that short reason we quash the impugned orders as ab initio void.

3. The applications are allowed. No costs.

Dated the 8th February, 1995

SP BISWAS
ADMINISTRATIVE MEMBER

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR (J)
VICE CHAIRMAN
