The grievance of the applicant, who was also considered for selection for engagement as unskilled Casual Labourer under the 2nd respondent on 28-3-1996 being sponsored by the Employment Exchange, is that she was not selected. Her case is that though 400 women along with many men participated in the selection process, the respondents have selected only 20 men which obviously shows that the respondents did not want to select any woman at all. This attitude of the respondents, according to the applicant, is arbitrary, irrational and unjustified. Therefore, the applicant has filed this application seeking to have the communication A-2 dated 25th of July, 1996 informing that she had not been selected quashed and for a direction to the respondents to appoint her as unskilled Labourer.

2. We have heard Sri TA Rajan, Counsel for the applicant and Sri KS Bahuleyan representing Sri TPM Ibrahim Khan, Counsel for the respondents. Apart from stating that none from the women have been selected nothing is alleged against the selection process. We have no reason to doubt the correctness of the selection made by the competent authority and we are also not sitting in appeal over the process of selection already made. Judicial intervention in administrative matters would be justified only if it is made out that the process of taking a decision has been vitiated. In this case, we do not find that there is a vitiating factor in the process of selection.

3. The original application is, therefore, rejected under Sec. 19(3) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. No costs.
