The application having been heard on 4-6-1997, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

The applicant seeks to quash A-3 order dated 26.9.95 declining honorarium/cash payment for the remaining part of the unavailed days of compensatory holidays.

2. The applicant was working as Technical Personnel in the Central Plantation Crops Research Institute. She retired on superannuation on 31-7-1994. She made A-2 representation claiming cash compensation/honorarium for the remaining part of unavailed compensatory holidays. As per A-3, in a cryptic manner, the representation has been rejected.

3. According to the applicant, she was entitled to avail compensatory holidays only with the permission of the Head of the Section, that one Senior Technical Assistant was on leave due to unavoidable reasons, that she was instructed by the Head of the Section not to avail leave for long period as it will affect the research work in Section due to paucity of technical personnel, and that the Head of the Section Dr. Radhakrishnan recommended that the applicant is entitled to get cash compensatory allowance as she had not avail leave due to pressure of work. The applicant also says that the favourable recommendation of the Head of the Section was not forwarded by the Joint Director to the 2nd respondent and A-3 order, according to the applicant, in all probability has been passed without seeing the recommendation of the Head of the Section. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant submitted that the 2nd respondent, if had seen the recommendation of the Head of the Section, in all probability would not have passed an order like A-3 which is under attack.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant submitted that the applicant may be permitted to make a detailed ~~supplemental~~<sup>l</sup> representation to the 2nd respondent and the 2nd respondent may be directed to consider and dispose of the same on merits calling from the Joint Director the recommendation ~~alleged to have been~~<sup>l</sup> made by Dr. Radhakrishnan,

Head of the Section. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents submitted that there is no objection for the same.

5. The applicant is permitted to file a detailed ~~supplemented~~ representation to the 2nd respondent within two weeks from today. If such a representation is submitted, the 2nd respondent shall consider the same and dispose it of by a speaking order uninfluenced by A-3 within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the representation.

6. Original Application is disposed of as aforesaid.
No costs.
