O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR (J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicants herein, seek to quash A-III order rejecting their request for transfer to Karur and Trichi. Applicants in O.A. 1785/94 and 1798/94 who had been transferred to Karur approached this Tribunal challenging the transfer while applicants herein seek a posting to Karur sub division.

2. A government servant has no right in the matter of transfer and an order of transfer is liable to be interdicted if only it is vitiated by malafide (See Union of India vs. S.L. Abbas (AIR 1993 SC 2444) and N. K. Singh vs. Union of India (1994(5)J.T. 298). However if an employee can be accommodated without hardship to anybody, or as in this case, if an employee can be accommodated at a place, where others do not want to go, there can be no harm in doing that. It must be remembered that a contended service works better. Those posted to Karur sub division do not want to go there. Prima facie, no harm will be done to anyone including the administration if these applicants are posted at Karur. Respondents should consider whether this could be done. Chief Personnel Officer will consider this while considering the representations made by applicants in O.A. 1785/94 and 1798/94. Till a decision is so taken, status quo
