O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR (J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicants who belong to the mainland, are working as teachers under the Lakshadweep Administration, admittedly for long years, though their appointments were styled adhoc.

2. According to applicants, they were appointed in accordance with the rules and it is a misnomer to call the appointment adhoc. They rely on decisions of the Supreme Court to contend that long and uninterrupted officiation entails regularisation.

3. Respondents would submit that a decision has been taken by the Government of India to limit regular appointments to islanders, with a view to protect them in the special circumstance. Shri M.V.S. Nampoothiri appearing for respondents raised an ingenious and attractive argument to the effect that such special treatment is permissible as part of reservation policy. In answer, applicants would submit that irrespective of other considerations discrimination on the ground of residence is unconstitutional. We think that the Government of India should take a look at the question, whether long years of service can be wiped out without any consequence. They must also consider whether the policy of shutting out mainlanders or implementing reservation creating monopoly or 100% reservation, is permissible. Applicants may make a detailed representation setting out their case before respondent Union of India, within six weeks from today. Union of India shall consider the matter with reference to its legal and human aspects, and take a decision as expeditiously as they find convenient. Till such a decision is taken status quo as of today will be maintained and thereafter, the matter will be governed by such orders as the Government of India may pass.

4. Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.

Dated the 1st November, 1994.
