ORDER

HON'BLE Mr.JUSTICE K.THANKAPPAN, JUDICIAL MEMBER

When the OA came up for admission, we have admitted the OA and passed an interim order directing the respondents to permit the applicant to appear for the examination. He was debarred because of the pending of a criminal case. It is now reported that in the criminal case, the applicant had already been convicted. In the light of the above, the Department is free to proceed against him as per law. The result of the examination shall be kept in abeyance till the final proceedings, if any, is taken by the Department on the basis of the criminal proceedings.

2. With the above observations, OA is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.

Dated, the 20th July, 2010.

K GEORGE JOSEPH
ADMINISTRATIVE MEMBER

JUSTICE K.THANKAPPAN
JUDICIAL MEMBER
