.4.

ORDER

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The facts, circumstances and point of law involved in both these cases being almost identical, these two cases are being heard and disposed of by this common order.

The applicants in both these cases were Line Inspectors/Sub Inspectors (Phones). On the basis of cadre restructuring a screening test was held in the year 1994 for being screened and appointed as Telecom Mechanics. The applicants at that time were drawing the same pay as Telecom Mechanics did not opt for the screening. Subsequently in the year 1998 when another opportunity was given to the applicants, they opted and they also were screened in. Those who appeared in the first screening test were trained and were appointed in their respective SSAs without any transfer and not waiting for creation of new posts being absorbed on personal upgradation basis. However, the applicants who were seniors to many of those who had been screened in the year 1994 on completion of training were by the impugned orders Annexures.A2 dated 28.2.2002 in both these cases posted in Malappuram SSA. Aggrieved by their posting in Malappuram SSA, the applicants have jointly filed these application seeking to set aside the order dated 28.2.2002 to the extent it related to the applicants declaring that the transfers of the applicants from Calicut SSA to Malappuram SSA are discriminatory and unsustainable and for a direction to the respondents to post the applicants in Calicut SSA itself against the vacancies available in Calicut SSA.

2. The applicants assail the impugned orders mainly on three grounds, firstly that they are senior in the cadre of Line Inspector/Phone Inspector, secondly that simply because a screening test was held in the year 1994 and the applicants did not appear in that they should not be pushed down to another SSA and thirdly that those who belong to the cadre of Line Inspectors/Phone Inspectors who appeared in the first screening test having been given posting in their station pushing the applicants to another SSA is arbitrary and discriminatory.

3. The respondents seek to justify the posting of the applicants in Malappuram SSA on the ground that those who were considered in the year 1994 were posted in the places where they were working, when the applicants were considered and sent for training Calicut SSA was a larger unit which got subsequently bifurcated into Malappuram SSA and Calicut SSA and that for deployment of staff where requirement is there, the applicants are being posted in Malappuram SSA which does not violate any rule or instruction on the subject.

4. We have heard the learned counsel on either side. Shri Panicker with considerable vehemence argued that Annexure.A7 order issued from the Directorate cuts at the route of the respondents' contention that the posting of the applicants in Malappuram SSA was valid and justified. According to the learned counsel as per the instructions contained in the order Annexure.R.7 without waiting for new posts, the Telecom Mechanics are to be posted in their own SSAs.

5. A mere scrutiny of Annexure.R.7 issued on 11.9.2000 would show that this was issued prior to the bifurcation of the Calicut SSA and that therefore, Calicut and Malappuram as two different SSAs had not come into existence on that date. Learned counsel then invited our attention to Annexure.A3 dated 1.4.2002 which took away the distinction between the regular Phone Inspectors and Line Inspectors and Line Inspectors and Phone Inspectors (O). This also does not advance the applicants' case. Annexure.A3 order was issued after the issue of Annexure.A2 order in both these cases. The deployment of staff in their control and command to places where their services are required is the absolute privilege of the administrative head of the department unless total arbitrariness or malafides is noticed the Courts and Tribunals would not interfere with the routine administrative functions. Hence prima facie we do not find any occasion for interference as there is neither malafide nor arbitrariness. The applications fail and the same are dismissed leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
