ORDER

The applicant's main contention was that the 4th respondent who belongs to Madras Division has been retained and the applicant transferred. Now the 4th respondent already stands transferred and the applicant is retained in the lone post at Cannanore. In all expectations there may not be any change in so far as the applicant is concerned as there is one post occupied by him at Cannanore. The applicant is given liberty to make a representation, if so desired, and the respondents may consider the same accordingly and pass suitable orders.
