The application having been heard on 5.9.2002, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant who is an Upper Division Clerk in the All India Radio has filed this application challenging his transfer from Trivandrum to Devikulam by the impugned order dated 20.6.2000(Annexure.A2). The applicant has alleged in the application that while transferring the applicant the norms relating to the transfer has been totally violated, that he being neither senior nor the junior should not have been picked up for transfer and that his transfer order is liable to be set aside on the ground of arbitrariness and discrimination.

2. The respondents in their reply statement seek to justify the order of transfer.

3. Before filing the O.A. the applicant had filed Original Petition No.17613/2000 alongwith another. The Hon'ble High Court of Kerala stayed the operation of the impugned order by an interim order which continued during the pendency of the OP. The OP was disposed of by order dated 6.3.2002 allowing the petitioner to withdraw the petition to seek relief before the Central Administrative Tribunal providing that the interim order will continue for two weeks more. Thereafter, this application has been filed. The Tribunal stayed the operation of the impugned order and the stay order still continues.

4. Noting that though the impugned order of transfer was issued in June, 2000 the same has not been given effect to on account of the interim order issued by the Hon'ble High Court and by the Tribunal, counsel on either side state that it would be appropriate if the application is disposed of permitting the applicant to make a detailed representation to the second respondent pointing out the relevant factors in his favour including the change in circumstances and directing the second respondent to consider the representation and to give the applicant an appropriate reply within a reasonable time keeping the relief of the applicant pending till a reply is served on him.

A handwritten signature or mark, appearing to be a stylized 'M' or a similar character, is written in black ink at the bottom left of the page.

5. In the light of what is stated above, the application is disposed of permitting the applicant to make a detailed representation to the second respondent seeking the applicant's retention at Trivandrum pointing out the change in circumstance and other relevant factors within two weeks from today and directing the second respondent that if such a representation is received, the same shall be considered and appropriate reply given to the applicant as expeditiously as possible keeping the relief of the applicant in abeyance till such a reply is served on him. No costs.
