Applicant who obtained temporary status pursuant to directions of this Tribunal has approached this Tribunal to reach the next step in the ladder, namely regularisation. He has made A-7 representation for this purpose. We find that the representation lacking in details. Applicant may make a fresh representation indicating his seniority position and that of his alleged juniors who are said to have been regularised. A representation without details cannot be considered and from such a representation a cause of action cannot be built. If applicant makes a detailed representation
