O R D E R

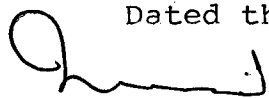

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant who is working as Senior Technical Assistant in the Telecommunication Wing of the Customs House, Cochin is aggrieved that one Assistant Director in the Customs Department belonging to the Scheduled Caste Community directly recruited ignorant of the technicalities of the job has been harrassing the applicant by conducting raid in his office, that the applicant made three representations to the Commissioner highlighting harrassment by the Assistant Director and that such representations did not evince any response. Therefore, the applicant has approached this Tribunal for the following reliefs:

- (i) To direct the 1st respondent to take proper action on Annexure.A1 to A5 and dispose of these representations/complaints within a stipulated period.
- (ii) To grant such other reliefs that may be urged at the time of hearing or that this Hon'ble Tribunal may deem fit to be just and proper.

2. We have perused the application and have heard the learned counsel of the applicant and the respondents. We do not find that the grievance of the applicant projected in the application pertains to any service matter. It appears to be an inter-personal dispute between the applicant and the Assistant Director to be sorted out departmentally or otherwise. We are of the view that the applicant does not have a legitimate cause of action entitling him to invoke jurisdiction of this Tribunal. The application is, therefore, rejected under Section 19(3) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.
