O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicant who describes himself as a Casual Mazdoor seeks a declaration that he is entitled to be reengaged. The basis for this claim in law or fact, remains mysterious. Representation A3 made to 1st respondent, that too a fortnight before filing this application, is equally cryptic as the Original Application. Ordinarily such disputed questions of facts should be decided by a fact finding authority as pointed out in R.K.Panda and others Vs. Steel Authority of India and others, 1994(5) SCC 304.

2. However, if applicant is desirous of filing a representation containing relevant facts he may do so before the competent authority and wait for a reasonable time instead of rushing to this Tribunal hardly before the ink is dry on the representation.

3. Application is disposed of as aforesaid.
No costs.

Dated 9th day of February, 1995.
