Having identical issues the above three Original Applications are taken up together.

2. The applicants are Ex-Naval Apprentices and have passed trade tests conducted by the National Council for Vocational Training in the trades of Machinist/Welder/Painter as the case may be. They are aggrieved by the inordinate and avoidable delay in appointing them as Tradesman (Skilled) in the appropriate trades. As per recruitment rules the post of Tradesman in a designated trade is to be filled 60% by absorption of Ex-Naval Apprentices of designated trades. There are a number of vacancies under the second respondent namely the Flag Officer, Commanding-in-Chief, Southern Naval Command, Kochi against which the applicants' can be absorbed. The representations made by the applicants to the second respondent on 27/28.12.2010 have not resulted in any positive action.

We also note that the instant Original Applications are covered by the decisions of this Tribunal in OAs Nos. 144 of 2009, 94 of 2003 and 653 of 2003. We are of the considered view that these Original Applications can be disposed of at the admission stage itself without a formal reply statement from the respondents. It is made clear that we are not entering a finding as to the merits of the cases at this stage. The second respondent is directed to consider the representations from the applicants dated 27/28.12.2010 in the light of the decisions in the aforesaid OAs and to dispose of them with a speaking order and communicate the same to the applicants within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
