The applicant, a Head Postmaster who claims to be the Senior-most official in HSG I cadre was continuously working in the Southern Region has been transferred out of her home region and home division by A-5 order and rejected her representation against the same by the 1st respondent. The impugned order dated 7.2.2005 (A-5) is challenged by the applicant seeking the following main reliefs:

- i) To call for the records leading to the issue of Annexure A-5 and quash the same.
- ii) To issue appropriate orders or directions to the 1st and 2nd respondents to reallocate applicant to the Headquarters Region and give her a suitable posting in Kollam Division preferably in the vacancy ensuing in the post of Postmaster Kottarakara by the end of March 2005.

2. When the matter came up before the Bench, Shri P.C. Sebastian, learned counsel appeared for the applicant and Shri George Joseph, learned ACGSC appeared for the respondents. Learned counsel for applicant submitted that though his earlier representation was rejected by the Postmaster General, now in the changed circumstance, he would like to make a fresh representation to the 1st respondent, Chief Postmaster General through proper channel and the 1st respondent may be directed to consider and dispose of the same and pass appropriate orders within a time frame. Counsel for respondents submits that he has no objection in adopting such a course of action.
