The application having been heard on 22.6.2006
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following

ORDERHON'BLE MRS. SATHI NAIR, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicants, who are working as Senior Tax Assistants in the Central Excise Department, filed this O.A. aggrieved by the denial of promotion to the post of Inspector of Central Excise.

2. When the matter came up before the Bench, learned counsel for the applicants submitted that since the applicants were promoted in the DPC held recently, as far as the question of promotion is concerned, the matter has been settled, but they are aggrieved for seniority and placement. He also states that this O.A. can be closed giving liberty to the applicants to agitate the matter further.
3. Learned counsel for the respondents submitted that, she got instructions from the department that, in a DPC held recently, the applicants have been promoted and therefore, the challenge in this O.A. as far as these applicants are concerned, has been redressed.
4. In view of the above facts, the O.A. has become infructuous and the same is closed as infructuous.
5. Applicants are at liberty to agitate the matter further, if they are aggrieved regarding the seniority and placement, before the concerned authorities.

Dated the 22 nd June, 2006.
