(By Advocate Mr. Mathew J Nedumpara, Standing counsel for Railways)

C R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN.

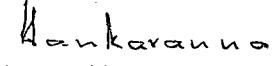

If we can infer the grievances of the applicant, it is that the question paper relating to "Rajbhasha Adhikari" Examination which she took had leaked out, and that marks were awarded to candidates, who had knowledge of the question paper, well ahead of the examination. If the allegations are true, they are indeed serious. But it is not for us to make a probe into these matters, atleast in the first instance. Applicant may raise her grievances before the Chief Personnel Officer, Southern Railway within three weeks from today. In that event the said officer shall cause an enquiry to be made into the allegation, and take appropriate action within four months of the date of receipt of the representation, if necessary with notice to candidates who have passed the examination. Appointment, if any, on the basis of marks in the examination will be subject to the outcome of the decision to be taken by the Chief Personnel Officer.

2. Application is disposed of with the aforesaid directions. No costs.

Dated 7th February, 1994.
