basis without considering the applicant for promotion to the post of Sub Inspector. The applicant aggrieved by the same submitted representations after representations to the second respondent. There was no response to the representations made by the applicant to the second respondent excepting to one representation. A very strange reason is given in the reply statement filed by the second respondent that the representations dated 6-9-90, 4-11-91, 3-9-93 and 4-3-94 could not be considered and replied for want of manpower and workload at the office.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant submitted that it is suffice to permit the applicant to submit a representation to the first respondent for redressal of his grievance. Learned counsel appearing for respondents has no objection for the same.

3. Accordingly, the applicant is permitted to submit a representation to the first respondent within one month from today. If such a representation is received, the first respondent shall consider the same and dispose of the same by passing a speaking order thereon within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the representation.

4. Original Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.
