This OA can be disposed of in the light of the statements in the reply filed by the respondents. It is stated that the regular incumbent, who vacated the post earlier, is likely to return to the Post Office as EDBPM, Kanthalode making it unnecessary for the Postal Department to proceed with the proposal of regular selection for the post.

2. The applicant approached this Tribunal apprehending that he will not be considered in the regular selection of BPM, Kanthalode on account of the 'cut off' date fixed in the regular selection. On 10.2.1993 after admitting the application, we directed the respondents to consider the applicant also in the regular selection to the post of EDBPM, Kallanode Branch Post Office provisionally and subject to the outcome of this applicaton. As indicated above, the respondents have stated that the regular incumbent is likely to return and join duty as EDBPM, Kallanode. Hence they are dropping the proposal for conducting regular selection to the post.

3. In the light of this statement, we are satisfied that the application itself can be closed with the observation that the applicant's claim for regular selection should be considered by the first respondent, if later he decides to conduct a regular selection to the post of EDBPM in the said Post Office. This direction has been issued considering the peculiar circumstances of this case.

4. In the result, the OA is closed as above. No costs.
