This application having been heard on 12th April 2011 this Tribunal on the same day delivered the following :-

ORDER

HON'BLE Mr. GEORGE PARACKEN, JUDICIAL MEMBER

Today when the matter was taken up for hearing the learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that the request of the applicant to relieve him has been rejected by the 3rd respondent which is the competent authority in the matter for the reason that his application for appointment with the respondents No.7-8 has not been forwarded through proper channel.

2. In the above facts and circumstances of this case, counsel for the applicant submitted that he wants to make a fresh request to condone the lapses on his part to the 3rd respondent pointing out that he originally belongs to Tamilnadu and his family members are there and consider the same sympathetically.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents submitted that in order to avoid any further delay or complication in the matter, the applicant shall be directed to make the representation to the 3rd respondent through proper channel.
