Applicants are contenders for the post of Project Officers in the Central Social Welfare Board. The interview for selection to the post was held on 25.10.94. The contention of the applicants is that the intimation regarding the interview was received by them belatedly so that they could not participate in the interview. They pray that they may be interviewed for the post of Project Officer. There is also a prayer that the selection of second respondent be declared illegal.

2. The grievance of the applicants arose on 25.10.94 when the interview was held for selection to the post of Project Officer. This Original Application is filed on 28.2.96 much after the time available for filing the application. Learned counsel for applicants would contend that they made representations for the redressal of their grievances. We notice that the representation A-3 is made as early as on 3.11.94. Even considering the representation the application is belated.

3. The application is therefore dismissed as barred by limitation. No costs.

Dated, the 8th October, 1996.
