The application having been heard on 11.1.2002, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The grievance of the applicants who are pensioners under the Administrator, Union Territory of Lakshadweep is that while revising their pension in accordance with the revised pay rules/pension rules the special pay element has not been taken into account for computing their pension although on the basis of a judgment of the Tribunal the special pay was treated as part of pay for the purpose of pension prior to the pay revision and in spite of the fact that the Government of India has issued Annexure.A3 order permitting to reckon the special pay for the purpose of computation of pension in regard to special pay optees upto 31.7.97. One of the applicants has made a representation in this regard to the third respondent on 15.7.2001 but without response. It is stated that the other applicants have also made representations.

2. When the application came up for hearing, learned counsel of the applicants states that the applicants would now make a consolidated representation to the first respondent and the first respondent may be directed to consider the same in the light of Annexures.A2 and A3 and to give the applicants an appropriate reply within a reasonable period. Shri S.Radhakrishnan, Standing Counsel for the Lakshadweep Administration and Shri C.Rajendran, SCGSC appearing for R.2 have no objection in the application being disposed of with the above direction.

3. In the result, in the light of the submission of the learned counsel on either side, the application is disposed of permitting the applicants to make a joint and consolidated representation to the 1st respondent within one month from today and directing the 1st respondent that if such a representation is received, the same shall be considered in the light of Annexure.A2 judgment and A3 order and any other relevant orders and to give the applicants an appropriate reply within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the representation. There is no order as to costs.
