The application having been heard on 7.10.2002 the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR A.V.HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant, who is a Postman under the 1st respondent, has filed this application under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, challenging the validity of clause(7) of the circular dated 15.2.2002(A-12) whereby it is stipulated that the number of chances for departmental candidates for appearing in the examination is limited to 6, as also the order dated 4.4.2002(A-13) denying her permission to appear in the examination to be held on 24.1.2002 on the ground that she has already availed of the maximum number of chances admissible. It is alleged in the application that although the applicant had applied for permission to appear in the examination 6 times on account of illness and on being on leave, she could avail only 2 chances, that the allegation that the applicant had availed maximum number of chances is factually not correct and that the restriction of number of chances to 6 having been struck down by the Tribunal in O.A.975/97 and O.A.1006/2001, the restriction on the number of chances for such appearance is unsustainable. With the above allegations, the applicant has sought to set aside clause(7) in A-12 and the impugned order A-13 and issue direction to the 1st respondent to permit the applicant to appear for the Departmental Examination for promotion of Lower Grade Officials to the cadre of Postal Assistants scheduled to be held on 28.4.2002 or on any deferred date and to permit the applicant to the cadre of Postal Assistant on the basis of the result in the above examination.

2. The respondents contend that the restriction regarding number of chances have been issued to supplement the provisions of Recruitment Rules not being repugnant thereto is sustainable and that the order of the Tribunal in O.A.975/97 is under appeal before the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala where an order of stay has been granted. On the facts, they contend that it was true that the applicant had appeared in the examination only in 1990 while she had applied in 1990, 1992, 1995, 1997 and 1998 as she was on medical leave but as she did not on return of the medical leave, ~~she~~ applied for withdrawal of her candidature within 10 days after return from leave it had to be deemed that she availed of the chances.

3. We have gone through the pleadings and other material placed on record and have heard the learned counsel for the applicant. This Tribunal has in O.A.975/97 considered the validity of the instructions contained in the letter of D.G., Posts, New Delhi dated 20.4.89 as also D.G.'s letter dated 17.5.90(A-3 and A-4) limiting the number of chances and held that these instructions having been issued prior to the statutory Recruitment Rules, they were no more valid after the Recruitment Rules were notified and as no such condition is incorporated in the extant rules. After the order in O.A.975/97, another instruction was issued by the Directorate in the form of a letter enhancing the number of chances from 5 to 6. The validity of this letter of the D.G., Posts was also considered by the Tribunal in O.A.1006/2001 wherein it was held that the letter of DG, Posts dated 26.8.99(which is mentioned in R-1(b) herein) enhancing the number of chances from 5 to 6 being only a corrigendum to the letters which had been set aside by the Tribunal in O.A.975/97 and being repugnant to the provision of the Recruitment Rule is unenforceable and unsustainable.

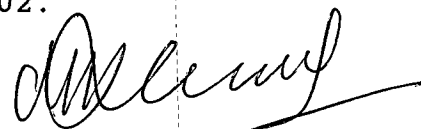

4. We are informed that the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala has dismissed the O.P.No.26159/99 filed by the respondents challenging the order of the Tribunal in O.A.975/97 ~~has been~~ ^{has} ~~dismissed~~ ^{has} on 10.7.2002. The order of DG, Posts dated 20.8.99 being only in the nature of a corrigendum or enlarging the number of chances from 5 to 6, prescribed in the letters which have been set aside by this Tribunal in O.A.975/97 ~~has~~ ^{has} no binding force. We are informed that the applicant has been allowed to take the examination pursuant to the ~~impugned~~ ^{interim} order.

5. In the result the application is allowed, the impugned orders are set aside, the candidature of the applicant is declared valid and the respondents are directed to publish the results of the applicant and to take further action accordingly. The above direction shall be complied with within two months from the date of receipt of copy of this order. There is no order as to costs.

Dated, the 7th October, 2002.
