The application having been heard on 19.3.2008, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

(ORDER)

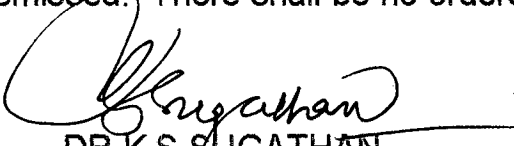

Hon'ble Mr George Paracken, Judicial Member

The applicant is aggrieved by the Annexure A-13 order dated 30.3.2007 issued by the 4th respondent. This letter has been issued on the basis of the Annexure R-4 letter issued by the 2nd respondent. These letters have been issued in compliance of the Tribunal's earlier order dated 1.3.2007 in OA 136/2007. The respondents have duly considered the representation of the applicant dated 26.11.2006 and informed her that she qualified in the Written Examination for the year 2002-2003, but she failed to make the grade due to the low vacancy position. There was only 1(UR) vacancy in the said year and her position was the 13th in the panel. She has not qualified in the written examination for the years 2000-2001 and 2003-2004 as she could not secure the cut off qualifying marks. They have also submitted that under the scheme of the Departmental Competitive Examination, there is no provision for declaring the marks secured by the individual candidates.

2 The contention of the applicant's counsel is that applicant had served for 19 years as LDC and it was because of the mala fide action on the part of the respondents that she has not so far been promoted as UDC.

3 We have heard Advocate Mr. Roy Thomas for the Applicant and Advocate Ms Jisha for Mr TPM Ibrahim Khan SCGSC for the Respondents. We have also perused the entire record. It is true that the applicant has put in 19 years of service as LDC and she had appeared in the competitive examinations for promotion as UDC held in various years. On one occasion, she has also qualified the test but unfortunately she could not be promoted as there was only one vacancy and she was 13th in the panel. We, therefore, do not find any justification in interfering in the matter by calling for the records of the Departmental Competitive Examinations for promotion from LDC to UDC/SK held during the years from 2000 to 2006 or to direct the respondents to promote the Applicant to the post of UDC. In this view of the above position, the OA is dismissed. There shall be no orders as to costs.
