The application having been heard on 12th March, 1996,
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

P.V. VENKATAKRISHNAN, ADMINISTRATIVE MEMBER

Applicants who are Mechanics/Slip Way Workers in the Integrated Fisheries Project, Cochin are aggrieved by the fact that their casual service has not been recorded in the service register as 'qualifying service' for pension. According to them, orders A1 lay down that 50% of such service paid from contingencies should count for computation of pension. Learned counsel for respondents states that A1 also prescribes certain conditions for such eligibility. Learned counsel for applicants asserts that all the relevant conditions are satisfied.

2. Applicants have made A2 series representations to the second respondent and they are stated to be pending consideration. Learned counsel for applicants submitted that the second respondent may be directed to dispose of these representations.

3. I accordingly direct second respondent to consider A2 series representations in the light of the instructions issued in A1 order and pass appropriate orders within two months.

4. Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.

Tuesday this the 12th day of March, 1996.
