JUDGEMENT

Shri SP Mukerji, Vice Chairman

In this application, the applicant who is at present working as ED Delivery Agent on a provisional basis in the Pattoor Branch Post Office has prayed that since he is already holding the post, the Respondents 1 to 3 be directed to consider him also for regular appointment to the post.

2 After hearing the learned counsel of both the parties and gone through the documents carefully, we admit this application. As per the application ^{the applicant} is stated to have been working as EDDA on provisional basis in the aforesaid branch post office since 28.8.90, when the regular incumbent had been dismissed. Subsequently, action has been initiated by the respondents through the Employment Exchange to get names of suitable officers and to screen them for regular selection. However, the applicant's name has not been sponsored by the Employment Exchange.

3 In conformity with the decision that we have been taking in similar cases that an EDA who is working in a provisional capacity in a post office should also be considered for regular selection to that post even though he is not sponsored by the Employment Exchange, if otherwise he is eligible, we close this application with the direction to Respondent 1-3 to consider the applicant also for regular selection in the aforesaid post even though his name has not been sponsored by the Employment Exchange, if he is otherwise eligible. We also direct the respondents that until regular appointment is made for the post, the applicant should not be disturbed from his present assignment.

4 Copy of this order may be given to the counsel by hand.
