Shri NV Krishnan, Administrative Member.

When the case was called for final hearing, the learned counsel for the respondents stated that the relief sought by the applicants have already been granted and therefore, this can be disposed of.

2 The applicants were transferred from one place to another, but they were not paid the Transfer TA on the ground that the transfers were made at their own request and hence they were not eligible to Transfer TA. The application was made to issue direction to the respondents to pay them Transfer TA. It is now stated by the learned counsel for the respondents that by an ^{order} ~~letter~~ dated 7.7.89 of the Ministry of External Affairs ~~that~~ the transfers of the applicants alongwith others have now been treated as being in public interest instead of at their own request. Accordingly, the applicants will be entitled to whatever dues are admissible to persons transferred in public interest.

3 Shri TA Rajan, Proxy Counsel representing Shri K Ramakumar concedes that in the light of these developments the applications ^u ~~have~~ become infructuous.

4 Accordingly, these applications ⁵ ~~are~~ dismissed as having become infructuous.
