The application having been heard on 18th March, 1996 , the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following :

ORDER

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN:

Applicants herein who are members of the Kerala State Police seek a direction to include their names in the Select List for 1994-95 for appointment to the Indian Police Service under the Appointment by Promotion Regulations .

2. The currency of the Select List has reached its fag end. There is no question of re-opening the same at this late hour and directing consideration of applicants herein, when more than six persons have already been appointed. This is not a fit case for exercising the discretion in favour of applicants.

3. We are told by counsel on all sides that applicants, by virtue of their seniority, are eligible to be considered for inclusion in the Select List for the year 1995-96. They are also within the eligible age limit. They will therefore be considered by the next Select Committee on their respective merits vis-a-vis the merits of other eligible candidates.

4. With these directions, we dispose of the applications. Parties will suffer their costs.

Dated the 18th March, 1996.
