CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicant whose father retired due to illness at the age of 50, seeks compassionate appointment. The same was rejected stating that the family is not in indigent circumstances. According to applicant, the family is indigent. Indigence is a relative concept and the question of indigence appointment has to be examined with reference to the facts of each case. The authority examined it and found against applicant. If he is aggrieved, he may take the matter before the Government of India by filing a representation. If a representation is filed, first respondent Union of India will consider the same and pass appropriate orders thereon within four months from the date of receipt of the representation.

2. With these directions we dispose of the application.
No costs.
