Applicant complains that promotions due to him have been delayed, on account of a misconception regarding his community status. He belongs to the "Mannan" community, which it is said is recognised as a Scheduled Caste. But, the determination of communal status was later than it ought to have been, and this brings in its wake loss of seniority and promotion, submits counsel.

2. Applicant has made a representation (A9) before 1st respondent. But, he seeks leave to make a comprehensive representation in place of A9. We permit him to make a comprehensive representation within two weeks from today and seek reliefs at the hands of 1st respondent.
