The application having been heard on 12th August, 2002
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR.A.V.HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant is a Veterinary Attendant under the respondents in the Lakshadweep Office, Willington Island, Cochin for the last three years. He was served with an order Annexure A-2 dated 15.3.2002 by which he was transferred to VDP, Androth. Alleging that he made a representation A-3 for retention at Cochin on compassionate grounds as his son aged ten years is undergoing treatment from Sri Chitra Tirunal Institute for Medical Sciences and Technology for a very serious ailment known as residual cervico medullary astrocytoma and that he has not been given any reply to his representation, but has been served with A-1 order requiring his immediate relief, the applicant has filed this application seeking to set aside the impugned order A-1 and for a direction to the 2nd respondent to permit the applicant to continue in service as Veterinary Attendant at the 3rd respondent's office so long as the applicant's son continue his treatment at Shree Chitra Thirunal Institute of Medical Sciences and Technology.

2. The respondents have filed a reply statement disputing that A-3 representation was made and indicating <sup>that</sup> the services of the applicant, a regular Attendant, is required more in Androth.

3. However, when the O.A. came up for hearing, learned counsel on either side agreed that the application may be disposed of permitting the applicant to make a detailed representation to the first respondent with supporting documents and directing the first respondent to consider the representation and to give the applicant an appropriate reply keeping the relief of the applicant pending till such a reply is served on him.

4. In the light of the above submission made by the learned counsel on either side, the application is disposed of permitting the applicant to make a detailed representation to the first respondent within fifteen days with supporting documents claiming retention at Cochin, and directing the first respondent to consider the said representation and to give the applicant an appropriate reply. We also direct that till a reply on the representation of the applicant is served by the first respondent, the applicant shall not be relieved from the present place of posting. There is no order as to costs.

Dated the 12th August, 2002.
