The application having been heard on 22nd March, 1996,
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicant challenges A2 order transferring him from Kalpeni to Chetlat Island. According to him he is in the process of constructing a house with loans, his wife is seriously ill, he had undergone a major surgery and he is a victim of other tragedies. If he is made to move to Chetlet Island now, the house construction like his personal life will be in jeopardy, states applicant.

2. These allegations regarding hardship are matters to be examined by respondent Administrator and not by this Tribunal. Standing counsel for respondents submits that A7 representation will be considered on its merits and appropriate orders passed thereon within ten days from today. We record the submission and dispose of the application. The order of transfer will be held in abeyance for ten days from today to enable the Administrator to take a decision in the matter, provided applicant has not been relieved. No costs.

Friday this the 22nd day of March, 1996.
