CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicant who is working as a Lineman (Phones) seeks to quash appointments made pursuant to Annexures A6 and A7. 50 percent of the posts of Phone Mechanics are reserved for Lineman and similar categories. They are selected on the basis of an examination. Applicant would submit that he a matriculate, was given to understand that only non-matriculates were eligible for consideration, while the position was not so. Due to this misapprehension (for which he has only himself to thank) he could not take the examination and many of his juniors including Mazdoors get promoted, submits applicant. Even if all contentions can be accepted there will be no justification for quashing the selections, when those selected and appointed were eligible to be appointed even according to applicant.

2. He may apply for the next selection and pursue his fortunes. We find no illegality or error apparent on the face of the record to quash the selection. Nor, is this a fit case to exercise the discretionary jurisdiction, in spite of the persuasive arguments of the learned counsel for applicant.

3. We dismiss the application. No costs.

Dated the 17th March, 1994.
