The application having been heard on 25.4.2001, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The grievance of the applicants is that even after the expiry of the period of 12 years of their appointment as Office Clerks they have not been given the benefit^{of} Assured Career Progression (ACP for short) under the scheme evolved by Office Memorandum dated 15.9.99 and that their representations in this regard are pending. The applicants have therefore, filed this application for a declaration that they are entitled to the benefit of ACP (A1) on completion of 12 years of service as Office Assistants A and for a direction to the respondents to consider the applicants for the benefit of ACP. It is inter alia prayed that the Ist respondent may be directed to consider and pass orders on Annexure.A6 series representations.

2. When the matter came up for admission, Shri CN Radhakrishnan took notice for the respondents. Learned counsel appearing on his behalf submitted that the application may be disposed of directing the Ist respondent to consider the representations (A6 series) made by the applicants and to give them appropriate replies within a reasonable time.

3. In the light of the above submission of the learned counsel appearing for the respondents the application is disposed of directing the Ist respondent to consider Annexure.A6 series representations made by the applicants and to give them appropriate replies within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. There is no order as to costs.
