The application having been heard on 01.03.2007, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following :

ORDER

HON'BLE MR.N.RAMAKRISHNAN, ADMINISTRATIVE MEMBER

The applicant in this case is a former temporary status casual labourer of the Postal Department. After attaining the age of 60 years she was discharged from service on 07.05.2005. The temporary status was conferred as per the scheme shown in Annexure A-7 which entitles the persons covered under the scheme to certain benefits. They are also entitled for being considered for Group D employment. Her request for regularisation as Group D was rejected by the impugned order Annexure A-6 dated 31.12.2004 on the ground that there was no approved vacancy of Group D for considering her regularisation as such. Her present concern is to get any allowable retirement benefits by relaxation of Rule 88 of CCS (Pension) Rules. At this stage, what remains for the applicant is to make an appropriate representation before the authorities concerned. The applicant would be satisfied if a direction is given to the respondents to make a representation to the authorities on this issue which can be disposed of within a time frame fixed by the Tribunal.

2. Under these circumstances, in the interest of justice, the applicant is permitted to make a representation to the authorities concerned for the grant of possible terminal benefits, which shall be duly disposed of in the light of rules and instructions within a period of three months from the date of receipt of such a representation.

3. OA is disposed of as above. No costs.

Dated the 1st March, 2007.
