Applicant a provisional employee, seeks a direction to retain her as Extra Departmental Branch Postmaster, Panniyankara till regular appointment is made to that post. According to standing counsel for

May be, so. But, a provisional employee having been appointed cannot be replaced with another provisional employee, in the light of the decision in State of Haryana and others Vs. Piara Singh and others, (AIR 1992 SC 2130).

The highest court in the land was apparently not happy about frequent rotations of provisional employees, and what it could lead to. In the light of the decision aforesaid, we direct respondents to retain applicant in her present position until a regular appointment is made, or until the regular incumbent of the post is reinstated.

2. Application is allowed as aforesaid. No costs.
