of time, A3, A2 and A6, in that order, governed appointments to the post of Chief Draughtsmen. According to applicants, their claims should have been considered under A-6 rules, and A-6 according to them wipes out A-2 rules retrospectively.

2. In paragraph 4 of the reply statement it is stated that A-6 rules have subsequently been superseded by another set of rules. It is also stated that for want of sufficient qualified hands the vacancies have been carried forward.

If they are carried forward, they will be filled up in accordance with the rules now in force, states Standing Counsel for the respondents. Para 4 of the reply statement reads:

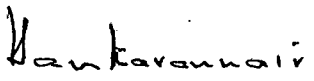

"As such the vacancies which are available till the issue of SRD 156/94 which could not be filled for want of eligible candidates will be carried forward and filled in (presumably meaning filled up) now as per SRD 156/94."

3. Respondents will fill up the vacancies positively within three months from today. We make it clear that we have not pronounced on the merits of the contentions, and that applicants will be free to seek adjudication of their grievances, if they are aggrieved after promotions are made as stated hereinbefore.

4. Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.
