JUDGEMENT

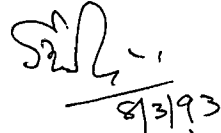

SHRI SP MUKERJI, HON'BLE VICE CHAIRMAN

We have heard the learned counsel for both the parties on this application in which the applicants have sought re-engagement on the basis of their alleged previous service during 1982 to 84. Having gone through the application, we find that the application is hopelessly vague and non-specific. No particulars about the previous engagement ^{from} ~~during~~ 1982 to ¹⁹⁸⁴ ~~84~~ or the office under which they were working have been given. The application does not merit entertainment in the form it has been presented before us.

Accordingly, with liberty to the applicants to make appropriate representations to the competent authority giving full particulars of their previous engagements, we dismiss this application under Section 19(3) of the Administrative Tribunals' Act.
