Applicant seeks a declaration that he is entitled to be promoted as Postal Assistant " with effect from the date on which he completed his training ". Though he is cryptic about the date, we find that the date is 21.2.84. After a decade we find no justification in granting relief. Delay defeats not only the remedy but the rights also.

We dismiss the application. However, this will not stand in the way of applicant seeking departmental remedies, if any. No costs.
