CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicant seeks to quash A7 by which respondent Accounts Officer informed him that his pay will be "less than the minimum, even if good conduct pay is taken into account." According to counsel for applicant this view is untenable and runs contra to the order of the Government of India (A5) which states that:

"....pension for purpose of those orders includes pension equivalent of gratuity and other forms of retirement benefits."

The question of fixation of pay on re-employment has therefore to be considered by the competent authority, which according to Central Government Standing counsel is the Chairman, Telecom Commission, New Delhi (4th respondent). Applicant may make a representation setting out his case in detail before 4th respondent and the 4th respondent shall consider the same and pass a speaking order thereon within four months of the date of receipt of the representation. 4th respondent will do well to adhere to the time limit.

2. Standing counsel submits that he will forward a copy of the original application and a copy of this order to 4th respondent for compliance. We record the submission.

3. Original application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.
