Applicant seeks a declaration that:

"the appointment of second respondent to the post of Syrang of Lascar(sic) is illegal and liable to be set aside."

According to him, he is entitled to be appointed in preference with (sic) second respondent.

2 These are tall claims unsupported by pleadings.

We do not know what the rules are that confer a right in applicant, and we do not know where the applicant stands vis-a-vis second respondent in seniority. We do not even know whether second respondent is promoted or not. We cannot adjudicate cases on such nebulous pleadings. We dismiss the application. But this will not preclude the applicant from raising his grievances before the competent authority. This direction by itself will not give a cause of action to applicant. No costs.
