In the counter affidavit it has been stated that when the DPC met for promotion to the post of D.C.S. selection grade ~~grade~~ Conservator of Forest, disciplinary proceedings against him were under contemplation. While according to the applicant disciplinary enquiry was made but it was not under contemplation when DPC met. No chargesheet was given and it seems that the same was given subsequently. The learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondents Shri N.P. Srivastava states that the applicant has now been promoted, vide order dated 23.4.91, which order has been placed before us, which indicates that a disciplinary proceedings against the applicant was under contemplation, as such in public interest he is being promoted on adhoc basis till further orders. The order on its face is not in conformity with the law. The applicant was entitled for promotion like any other person. Merely because disciplinary proceedings were under contemplation when D.P.C. met, of course, results could not
