ORDER (ORAL)

By Hon'ble Shri M. Kanthaiah, Member (J)

The applicant has filed the Original Application for quashing the impugned order dated 13.5.2005 under which the respondents have rejected his claim for appointment on compassionate ground.

2. It is the case of the applicant that his father Shobh Lal died on 14th March, 2001 while working as Group 'D' employee in the Head Post Office, Faizabad leaving behind his wife, two minor children and three unmarried daughters. Thereafter, he filed representation for considering his claim for compassionate appointment on 25.9.2002 but respondents have rejected his claim on 13.5.2005 (Annexure 3) which is under challenge in this Original Application in which no reason has been assigned for rejecting his claim. The respondents have filed objection opposing the claim of the applicant.

2. Heard both sides.

M.P. 1712/07 to 1713/2007 In O.A. 187/2006

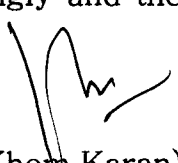

Dated: 11.10.2007.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Khem Karan, Vice Chairman

Shri S.K. Singh holding brief of Sri D.K.Singh appears for the applicant and Shri S. K.Singh for the respondents.

I have heard parties counsel on M.P. No. 1712/07 to 1713/2007. The O.A. was finally disposed of vide order dated 15.11.2006 directing the respondents to reconsider the claim of the applicant for compassionate appointment and pass reasoned order. It appears that the respondents have passed certain orders on 5.5.2007 and filed the same ^{year} saying that the order ^{has} been complied with. Shri Singh says that the orders have not been complied with.

The Tribunal is of the view that the question as to whether the order ^{have} ~~has~~ been complied with or not, can be debated in other appropriate proceedings but not in ^{this} ~~the~~ O.A.
So these applications stands disposed of accordingly and the record be consigned.

(Khem Karan)
Vice Chairman.
