3. O.A. no. 81 of 2008 was decided vide its judgment and order dated 21.2.2008 with following observations:

"After hearing for the parties, I am of the opinion that the O.A. can be disposed of at admission stage by giving a direction to the respondents to dispose of the representation of the applicant with a reasoned and speaking order. Accordingly, the respondent no.2 is hereby directed to treat this O.A. as representation of the applicant and decide the same by a reasoned and speaking order in accordance with rules within a period of four months from the date of receipt of the copy of this order. The applicant is directed to serve the certified copy of this order alongwith copy of O.A. on respondent

4. In compliance of Tribunal's order dated 21.2.2008 passed in O.A. no. 81 of 2008 filed by Manish Kumar (applicant in the present O.A.), the Director (Admn.) in the office of Directorate General of Aeronautical Quality Assurance, New Delhi has rejected the claim of the applicant for compassionate grounds by passing a reasoned and speaking order dated 26.8.2008, which is under challenge in the present O.A.

The applicant has now requested for direction from this Tribunal to the authorities to consider his name for compassionate appointment.

6. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, I am of the opinion that it would be in interest of justice if the case of the applicant is considered alongwith other candidates once more as and when vacancies exist in terms of existing instructions and relevant rules on the subject.

7. The O.A. is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
