officers including the applicant which were made in utter violation of transfer policy. Accordingly, the transfer order issued by CECC was cancelled with immediate effect for effected individuals who have not moved. However, in cases of effected individuals who have moved to new place of posting, fresh posting order has been directed to be issued at the end of CECC and individuals be repatriated back to previous place of posting. This order has been brought on record as Annexure-M-1 of M.P.No.1097/2011. learned counsel for applicant further submits that in the light of this order the applicant has moved a representation dated 25/26.04.2011 addressed to Lt. Gen. M.C. Badhani, Engineer-in-Chief, Kashmir House, New Delhi through proper channel (Annexure- M-2). He therefore submits that it would meet the ends of justice if the OA is disposed of finally with a direction to Respondent No.2 to dispose of the representation of the applicant in the light of the aforesaid order dated 08.12.2010. As for this request is concerned, the learned counsel for official respondents has no objection.

3. In view of the above this OA is finally disposed of with a direction to the Respondent No.2 to dispose of the representation dated 25/26/.04.2011 in the light of the order dated 08.12.2010 within a period of six weeks from the date a certified copy of this order alongwith readable copy of the aforesaid copy of representation is furnished to the Respondent No.2. No order as to costs.
