2. In this O.A., the punishment order dated 26.9.2011 has been impugned. It is said that statutory departmental appeal has also been filed on 10.10.11 (Annexure-3) but its perusal shows that Para 3 is incomplete wherein, no amount whatsoever has been indicated. The learned counsel for the applicant fairly concedes and says that he intends to file a fresh appeal provided this Tribunal gives protection in respect of limitation, if any, in filing the appeal. He also requests that this O.A. may be disposed of with liberty to file a fresh. As far as this requests is concerned, the learned counsel for the respondents has no substantial objection.

3. In view of the above, this O.A. stands finally disposed of with an observation that it would be open for the applicant to file the statutory appeal, if any, within two weeks from today. If appeal is rejected, it would be open to the applicant to file fresh O.A. in accordance with law as and when it is required. But the applicant is supposed to approach this forum only after
