Order( Dictated in Open Court)

By Hon'ble Justice Sri Alok Kumar Singh, Member (J)

Heard and perused the record.

2. In compliance of this Tribunal's order dated 5.2.13, an order has been passed by the respondents on 19.3.13 (Annexure-A-9).

3. The contention of the learned counsel for the applicant is that, it is not in accordance with the observation made in the order/judgment of this Tribunal dated 18.01.02 rendered in O.A. No. 187/1994. But we are feeling handicapped to enter into the matter of the order under this contempt jurisdiction. There was a direction to pass a reasoned and speaking order keeping in view of the observations made in the order/judgment of this Tribunal and in furtherance thereof, a reasoned and speaking order running into two pages has been passed. If the applicant is feeling aggrieved on certain points, the same can be adjudicated if a new O.A. is filed.

4. In view of the above, we do not find any substance for issuance of notice. The contempt petition is therefore struck off.
