ORDER ( By Circulation)

By Hon'ble Shri S.P.Arya, Member (A)

This Review is directed against the judgment and order dated 16.5.2005 in O.A. No. 160/2000 dismissing the O.A.

2. The review is sought for not appreciating the facts and failing to appreciate certain facts. It appears that applicant wants to re-argue the case. Re-assessment and re-writing of judgment is not permissible under the Review as the scope of review is very limited. On perusal of our judgment, we do not find any error apparent on the face of record or discovery of any new and important material, which even after exercise of due indulgence was not available with the reviewist. If the review applicant is not satisfied with the order passed by the Tribunal, remedy lies elsewhere. Relying on the Apex Court observation in Union of India Vs. Tarit Ranjan Das 2004 SCC (L&S) 160 "The Tribunal passed the impugned order by reviewing the earlier order. A bare reading of the two orders shows that the order in review application was in complete variation and disregard of the earlier order and the strong as well as sound reasons contained therein whereby the original application was rejected. The scope of review is rather limited and is not permissible for the forum hearing the review application to act as an appellate authority in respect of the original order by a fresh order and rehearing of the matter to facilitate a change of opinion on merits. The Tribunal seems to have transgressed its jurisdiction in dealing with the review petition as if it was hearing an original application. This aspect has also not been noticed by the High Court." we are of the considered opinion that the re-argument is not permissible.

3. Having regard to the above, R.A. is rejected in circulation.
